

ACCESSORY DWELLING UNIT (ADU)

What is an accessory dwelling unit (ADU)?

An ADU is a second dwelling unit that is on the same property as a single-family detached dwelling (primary residence). The property owner must live in either the primary residence or the ADU.

An ADU comes in three forms:

- Detached – a detached unit from the existing house located on the same lot.
- Attached – an attached (addition) unit to the existing house located on the same lot.
- Within the primary residence – a unit that is integrated into the existing house.

What does an ADU Require?

To be considered an ADU, the space must contain: a living area, sleeping facilities, a bathroom, and a kitchen with a stove. A kitchen will be assumed if 220 V wiring is proposed.

Where are ADUs allowed?

ADUs are potentially allowed only for single-family detached dwellings in the following zone districts:

- Single-Family Detached
- Single-Family Attached
- Residential Estate
- Multifamily
- ADUs may be allowed in certain Planned Development (PD) zoning districts. Verify with a City Planner if your property is in a PD zoning district.

What are the requirements and restrictions?

The requirements established within the Development Code are conveniently outlined in this handout. For more information on these requirements please see Section 18-173 of the Development Code.

What permits and approvals are required?

An ADU will always require a Development Permit. Depending on the size of the project, it will require either a Major or Minor Development Permit. Consult with a city planner to determine which type of Development Permit will be required.

A building permit will be required once the Development Permit is issued.

Please contact the Building Inspection Division for more information regarding the building permit requirements at 303-538-7250.

What is a deed restriction? How do you file a deed restriction?

The deed restriction required by the City for an ADU is a document that limits the use of the property. A template for this deed restriction is found in this handout. You will be required to record the deed restriction, with the legal description of your property attached, in the Adams County real property records before a building permit for the ADU will be issued. This deed restriction will become part of the title for the property where the ADU will be located.

NOTES

1. Size Requirements

When calculating the maximum size for an ADU, the calculations does not include any garage, porch, or similar area.

2. Minimum Off-Street Parking Spaces

Most residential zone districts require 4 off-street parking spaces: Two enclosed (garage) and two unenclosed (driveway). An ADU requires one (1) additional parking space which can be either enclosed or unenclosed.

3. Water Service

Adding additional plumbing fixtures to an existing water service should be evaluated before submitting an application for a permit. A worksheet from the Building Inspection Division is included in this handout. Contact the Building Inspections Division for more information at 303-538-7250.

4. Sewer Service

Separate connection fees are required by the Metro Wastewater District for an ADU. The 2022 fee is $4,710 per ADU. Fees are subject to change and may be more depending on water meter size requirements. Contact the Utility Billing Department at 303-539-7370 to arrange for payment.

WITHIN EXISTING PRIMARY DWELLING ADU

NOTE: Even if there are no exterior changes to the property, an ADU within an existing house will still require one additional off-street parking space as shown in the example above.
